TRAVELER'S GUIDE.

Vandalia Route West!

Twenty-three miles the shortest. Three express trains leave Indianapolis daily, except Sunday, for St. Louis and the West.

The only line running Pullman's celebrated Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars from New York, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Louisville, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, to St. Louis, without change.

Passengers should remember that this is the great west-bound route for Kansas City, Leavenworth, Lawrence, Topeka, Junction City, Fort Scott and St. Joseph.

Emigrants and families, who are seeking homes in the rich valleys and on the fertile prairies of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, take notice this is the cheapest and the most direct route.

This line has facilities for transporting families to the far West not possessed by any other line. Save time and money.

Tickets can be had from all the principal Ticket Offices in the Eastern, Middle and Southern States. C. E. FOLLETT, General Pass. Agent, St. Louis; R. E. FOLLETT, General Pass. Agent, Indianapolis; JOHN E. SIMPSON, General Superintendent, Indianapolis. [Feb 23]

Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, California.

Advertising alone does not produce success. The thing which is advertised must have intrinsic merit, or else large advertising will eventually do more harm than good. If you have anything which you know to be good, advertise it thoroughly, and you will be sure to succeed. If it is poor don't waste it, for people will soon discover you are trying to cheat them.

It is the policy of the Burlington Route, which runs to three great regions in the West: 1st, To Omaha, connecting with the great Pacific Road, 2d, To Kansas City, and 3d, To St. Louis, and all that beautiful region south of the Plate, filled with R. R. lands and homesteads. 2d, To St. Joseph, Kansas City and all Kansas points.

The roads are splendidly built, have the best bridges, finest cars, the Miller platform and coupler, and the safety air brake (to prevent the loss of life that is every where else happening). Pullman's sleepers, Pullman's dining cars, large and powerful engines (to make quick and good connections), and are in a word the best equipped and most comfortable line of the West.

If you desire to go safely, surely, quickly and comfortably to any point in Southern Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, or on the Pacific Road, be sure you go "By way of Burlington."

All who wish particular information, and a leaflet map, showing correctly the route, and all its railroad connections, can obtain them, and any other knowledge, by addressing General Passenger Agent, R. E. FOLLETT, Burlington Iowa.

Are You Going West?

If you take our advice, and purchase your tickets over the old reliable and popular MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD, which is, positively, the only line that runs three Daily Express Trains from St. Louis to Kansas City and the West, and, positively, the only line which runs Pullman's Palace Sleeping Cars and Day Coaches (especially for money) equipped with Pullman's Sleepers and the Patent Buffet Car, from St. Louis to Kansas City, Fort Scott, Parsons, Lawrence, Leavenworth, Leitch, St. Joseph, Nebraska City, Council Bluffs and Omaha, and on to the West, you will find it a most profitable investment in regard to Time Tables, rates, etc., to any point in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Texas or Oklahoma, and, Missouri Pacific R. R., Columbus, Ohio, or E. A. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

No trouble to answer questions! mar. 29.

Official Paper of the County.

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1872

Presidential Election, Tuesday, November 5.

The following is a correct copy of the Democratic-Republican Electoral ticket, as will be voted in Ohio, on the 5th of November:

Presidential Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, HONORABLE GREELEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, B. GRATZ BROWN.

ELECTORS.

THOMAS EWING.
ALFRED THURMAN.
FLAMEN HALL, JR.
ISAAC M. JORDAN.
GRANTVILLE W. STOKES.
JOHN L. WINNER.
DANIEL J. CALLEN.
JAMES H. FREASE.
JOSEPH J. GREEN.
JOHN A. YOUNG.
THOMAS E. POWELL.
WILLIAM E. HAYNES.
OWEN T. GUNNING.
EDWARD SMITH.
SWYER L. CARR.
MICHAEL D. HARTER.
WILLIAM H. OLDHAM.
WILLIAM LAWRENCE.
ALBERT R. HAINES.
JAMES C. JOHNSON.
TERENCE R. BURROWS.
EDWARD M. BROWN.

A. T. Stewart, who knows Ulysses pretty well, pronounces him a stupidly selfish and unprincipled cornorator.

If you wish Delano, Sapp and Smith, Baldwin, Boynton, Ben Grant, and all such patriots kept in office, then vote for Ulysses Grant for President on next Tuesday.

The Radicals say that Bascom edited the last number of the Republican without any assistance from the Executive Committee. It is a wonderful performance!

Money is very scarce, produce is low, and many farmers are not able to pay their taxes. The office-holders are eating out the substance of the people. Let there be a change.

Returns of registration in Missouri show an increase of nearly one-half over 1870. The total vote will hardly be less than 860,000, and the Liberal majority ought to be 70,000.

Gen. William Schouler, who edited the Columbus Journal in 1871, and afterwards edited the Cincinnati Gazette, died on Thursday last. He was a genial gentleman and a good editor.

If the Democracy of Ohio will organize by townships, school districts and neighborhoods, so as to bring out every Democratic voter, Greeley will carry the State by a handsome majority.

The Republican makes no mention of the fact that the Grand Jury of Knox county, at its recent session, indicted three citizens of Washington City who voted illegally at the October election.

"Brick" Pomeroy says he is disgusted with the cowardice of Charles O'Connor. And the people are equally disgusted with the treachery of "Brick" Pomeroy. He is a played out humbug.

The following would be a good text for a sermon to President Grant: "Thy prices are rebellious and companions of thieves; EVERY ONE LOVETH GIFTS, and followeth after rewards!"—Isaiah, chap. 1, v. 23.

The Convention at Columbus that nominated the O'Connor Electoral Ticket, was composed of one man, Joe Geiger, of Franklin county. These "Electors" don't stink, and the Grant men declare that Joe is a fraud.

Joe Geiger denies that he has been paid by the Grant men to get up the Grand side-show in behalf of Charles O'Connor, who is not a candidate. Possibly some greenhorns may believe what Joseph says.

General Longstreet the great rebel leader during the war, publishes a letter declaring that he will support Grant instead of Greeley. How natural! Longstreet married into the Dent family, and that explains it all!

We have a report that arrangements are being made to establish a new Republican organ in this city. The course pursued by the Republican during the present campaign has disgusted every decent man in the party.

Those brilliant political luminaries, Columbus Delano and Robert C. Kirk, have gone to Missouri to enlighten the natives. What have the people of Missouri done that they shall be compelled to suffer such a double affliction?

The Radicals say that Grant is "paying off the National Debt." This is not true. Grant has not paid a cent of the National Debt. He receives gifts, but don't pay anything. The tolling people of America are paying off the National Debt.

Joe Geiger says that it was not William Hartsook of Knox county, but some other William Hartsook, that he put on the O'Connor electoral ticket. This story will do to tell to the marines. Joe is one of the most inflated humbugs of the age.

Delano's mission to Missouri, it is understood, is to instruct the Radicals in the art and mystery of multiplying votes, after the style in Pennsylvania. In ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, Columbus has no equal, save Simon Cameron.

The men nominated by Grant's tool and agent in Ohio, Joe Geiger, to act as O'Connor electors, have nearly all declined. They wish to beat Grant, and they know the only way to do it is to vote for Horace Greeley.

Why is it, asks the Columbus Sentinel, that we hear no Radical boasting over the great victory in Pennsylvania? You may converse with one for a half an hour and he will not mention Pennsylvania. It is not because the election was so palpably and notoriously fraudulent that it was in point of fact no election at all!

Presidential Election, Tuesday, November 5.

Grant's parabolical Cabinet of Delano, spoke in Elmhurst, New York, the other night, to the smallest political gathering held in that city during the present campaign. The Chairman of the meeting introduced him in the following terms: "Gentlemen and ladies: I now have the pleasure of introducing to you the Honorable Commissioner of the Commissioner of the Secretary of—of Mr. Delano, of Washington." The Chairman was President of the United States yet. His speech would pass for one of Grant's without arousing suspicion.

The Bread and Butter Brigade are very busy. All the Cabinet have been sent to New York, to speak and work for their master, Ulysses. They are fearfully afraid that if their party is beaten an investigation will take place in regard to the stealing that has been going on. Delano and Cameron stole a Railroad in Georgia, and have been stealing public lands all over the West. They dread an exposure of their rascalties. Some of these men, before the 4th of March next, will find it convenient to "leave their country for their country's good."

General Joseph Lane, of Oregon, candidate for Vice-President on the Breckinridge ticket in 1860, is strongly for Greeley and Brown. In a letter recently published, written from his home in Oregon, he says: "I have not conversed with Democrats since I left Douglas County that is not for Greeley, and so far as I can learn, all the Democrats of this (Ore.) county will vote the Greeley ticket, as also many of the old time Republicans. It is said by those who ought to know, that tickets will carry this county by a majority of thirty at least."

Hon. D. W. Voorhees writes that "Greeley has personally raised himself a thousand fold in my estimation. His course has been all that could be desired, and I believe he would, if elected, be perfectly true to the principles he has so gradually proclaimed in his unvarnished addresses to the public. I shall vote for him in November, not only unhesitatingly but with pleasure, as a man who has established his claims to my admiration, notwithstanding my previous prejudice."

Dr. A. E. Jenner, of Crawford county, who was a candidate for Congress in that district, but failed to receive the nomination, out of pure spite vote, got a man named George Healy to run as a straight Democratic and Temperance candidate; and although Jenner spent his time and money in circulating tickets, his candidate received just 69 votes out of 7,750 that were cast. Jenner has completely killed himself politically.

The Grant men of Indiana got up what they called a "Straight Democratic Ticket," to aid in defeating Hendricks, but it only received 130 votes in the entire State. The office-holders in Ohio, backed by money stolen from the people, are now sending out a "Democratic Straight-out Electoral Ticket," to help Grant; but no Democrat is foolish enough to be caught by such chaff. Vote for Honest Horace Greeley.

At the recent State election, the number of votes cast in some of the Ohio second class cities, was as follows:

City	Wiley	Wilcox	Total
Newark	920	610	1530
Wooster	672	688	1360
Lancaster	652	619	1271
Canton	1189	1018	2207
Mt. Vernon	465	713	1178
Zanesville	1690	1613	3303
Mansfield	851	777	1628

Some of the tools of Grant are already announcing that he will again be a candidate for President in 1876, which simply means that they intend to keep him in office for life. In States where they are in the minority, as in Pennsylvania, they declare that they can and will carry the election by fraud. Will people sanction this rascality? Never! Vote for Greeley!

The Radical leaders care nothing about Grant. They know that he is not a statesman, and has not a single qualification for the Presidency of a great country like this. But these leaders, by playing the sycophant and flatterer Grant, expect to be kept in office. Outside of the Bread and Butter Brigade, Grant has not a sincere friend in the country.

Dr. E. D. W. C. Wingo, a Republican, made serious charges against Major Sage and Ben Grant, government office-holders in this city, showing that they were guilty of illegal acts, but the U. S. Court at Cleveland, under instructions from Washington, declined to prosecute them. Let us have a change.

William Hartsook, of Mt. Vernon, who has been placed on the O'Connor electoral ticket by a Mass Convention composed of Joe Geiger, telegraphed us yesterday that he declines the place and advises all Democrats to vote for Greeley. Mr. Hartsook very properly thinks that this is the only way to defeat Grant. But his telegraphic dispatch speaks for itself.—Oh. Sentinel.

Ohio is sure for Honest Horace Greeley, if all the Democrats and Liberal Republicans turn out to the polls. Go to work, friends, in every township and school district. See all your neighbors and urge upon them the importance of getting out every voter on the 5th of November.

In five townships in Licking county, viz: Fallsburg, Perry, Hopewell, Madison and Monroe, there were 94 Democrats who did not vote at the late election. They promise all to be out next Tuesday. Greeley will carry Ohio like a tornado, if the Democratic vote is out. There is no doubt about it.

The Grant men are asserting that friends have been committed by the Democrats in Georgia. This is a mere sham, for the purpose of affording a pretext for sending troops into that State so as to drive away the white men from the polls at the point of the bayonet.

By the census of 1870, New York had a population of 3,260,000, and Philadelphia a population of 672,000; and yet, at the recent election, 13,110 more votes were cast in Philadelphia than in New York. These facts, alone, prove the extent of the Grant frauds in Philadelphia.

The Grant Radicals are coaxing and begging Liberals to come back and vote to keep the thieves in office: "Will you come into my parlor and sip a spider a fly."

The Grant little parlor that ever you did spy a fly.

Ohio Official.

The following is the official vote of Ohio on Secretary of State, as compared with the vote of 1868 on the same office:

	Democratic.	Republican.
1868	249,682	287,065
1872	231,870	265,825

It will be seen (says the Engineer), that the Republican vote has fallen off 1,240 votes, and that the Democratic vote has increased in 1868. This convinces us that the Grant men have polled their full vote, and that they have but little in reserve. They have not been quite able to make up, by their natural increase of votes, and the negro vote added, the loss occasioned by the Liberal Republican defection of 15,000 to 20,000. There ought to be, at the Presidential election, 550,000 votes cast, at least, of which the Democrats and Liberals will probably gain:

	Democratic.	Republican.
Democrats	255,000	25,000
Liberals	25,000	280,000

Position of William Hartsook, Esq. Joe Geiger, who was employed by the Grant office-holders to get up an O'Connor Electoral Ticket in Ohio, has met with poor success. Our friend William Hartsook, of this county, whose name was used by Joe without his consent, thus repudiates the whole business. Mr. Hartsook, like every other honest Democrat, goes for Greeley in order to beat Grant.

MR. VERNON, O., October 25.—To the Democracy of Ohio—I have been nominated as an Elector on the O'Connor and Adams ticket. As Mr. O'Connor declined to accept nomination, there is no Democratic principle involved in this matter, and I respectfully decline being a candidate for Elector on that ticket. If the Democracy expect to defeat Grant, they must vote for Greeley. WM. HARTSOOK.

They Took No Bribes. Thomas Jefferson, who occupied the Presidential chair eight years, died a poor man.

Madison, his successor, left a widow who was saved from want by Congress purchasing the manuscript of her husband.

Monroe was so poor that he was buried by the charity of his friends.

The Adamses, Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln and Johnson came out of the office but little better financially than when they were elected.

The Credit Mobilier Swindle.—Several of the Rascals Confess. It is said that Grant was so far moved by the published accounts of the Credit Mobilier bribery as to depose one of his personal friends to examine the Court records. This gentleman did so, and stated there upon to Mr. Oakes Ames that he had seen the original letters of Ames, and that they were exactly as McCormick represented in his affidavit. It is absolutely certain that some of the implicated Congressmen have made confessions of their guilt, and a Committee of Investigation will establish these facts.

Knox Leads the Column! During four successive years, the Democracy of Knox made more steady gains than any county in Ohio; and at the late election, did better than any county in the State, except Hamilton and Cuyahoga.

Not to Vote, Is a Crime. In the freest government of old Greece, a freeman who failed to vote was treated as a criminal. On conviction he was fined and deprived of the right to vote for a given length of time, and unless there were mitigating circumstances, he was disfranchised altogether.

Workingmen! Vote for Horace Greeley! He is now and always has been your friend. He has labored all his life to elevate the toiling masses, and have them well rewarded for their services. Grant has done nothing for the workingman. He is the candidate of the bankers, drones and speculators, "who toil not, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Brightly Breaks the Morning! The unpopularity of Grant has been made apparent since the October election. All of the Republicans save the office-holders, and a few deluded office-hunters have ceased to work. They recognize the fact that Ohio will go against Grant, and thousands upon thousands who voted the Republican State ticket, will vote for Greeley!

They Will Emigrate. Charles Baldwin has announced that if Grant is re-elected he has the promise of the Mt. Vernon Post-office for brother Frank; but if Greeley is elected he and Frank have made arrangements to settle in California. We guess they will be starting towards sundown on next Wednesday morning, with free passes in their pockets.

The Silent Vote. The silent vote AGAINST Grant, in Ohio, will be over twenty thousand.

Grant was forced on the Republicans by the office-holders like Charles Baldwin, Ben Butler and Columbus Delano. It was an insult to the intelligent and honest men of the Republican party, and they will quickly resent the insult at the polls, on Tuesday next.

The Dawn of Day! New York, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, California and Oregon, as well as all the Southern States, are sure for Greeley, and the full Democratic vote will give OHIO AGAINST GRANT by twenty thousand majority!

Where are Your Taxes? What becomes of the three hundred millions paid by the people into the federal treasury?

The Silent Vote. Against Grant, best him! Do the work well! Shame bluster the man who fails to vote!

Remember, That if Grant is elected, Charles Baldwin is to be First Assistant P. M. General, and Frank is to be Postmaster at Mt. Vernon.

Remember, That if Grant is elected, the present teachers will continue to fatten on the Treasury.

Remember, That Delano never forgives. A vote for Grant is a vote to keep yourselves down.

How Do They Get Rich? On five thousand a year, how do members of Congress save twenty thousand dollars?

Show the Books. Beat Grant, and examine the books.—Where have the taxes gone? Bring out the vote.

Vote and Beat Grant. Every county in Ohio will largely increase the Liberal and Democratic vote; while the Republican vote will everywhere fall off.

Remember, That a vote for Grant is a vote to make Ohio a slave State for the life of Delano.

Remember, That a vote for Grant is a vote to send Kirk to Liberia.

POLITICAL.

Only about forty thousand Democrats did not vote in this State at the October election.

Hon. S. S. Cox writes: Have no doubt about New York. We are good for at least seventy-five thousand majority for Mr. Greeley.

A man who can vote, and fails to do so, ought to be disfranchised. He is not worthy to possess the right of a freeman who will not exercise it.

The Wilmington Commercial, a Grant paper, says that "the stump speaker who counts on Delaware for Grant simply makes a fool of himself."

North Carolina Republicans telegraphed to Washington to learn if they should be that on State for Grant, and the result is that none of them will bet.

Gen. Banks, who has been feeling the pulse of the people out West, says, on his return to New England, "No human power can defeat the Liberal cause."

Senator Schurz prophesies that, in case of Grant's election, the country will witness the deplorable results seen in Mexico and South America.

Morton thinks Grant's administration the purest he has ever known. The Chicago Times thinks he ought to know, seeing that he "puts in" so much of it himself.

A club of Greeley men (colored) has been raised in Hartford, N. C. over 100 strong, where at the recent election, only fifteen colored votes were cast for the Democratic ticket.

Let every Democrat make it his business to see that every other Democrat in his neighborhood goes to the polls, and we will most certainly carry Ohio in November.

If a Legislature had been chosen at the late election in Ohio it would have been Liberal in both branches. This indicates that the Liberals will have the next U. S. Senator.

"Absent without leave" will be written on the records of eternity against every Democrat who fails to vote the Democratic Electoral Ticket on the 5th of November.

The President has, within a few days, sent troops to certain portions of Georgia, Alabama, and Louisiana, to overawe the Conservative voters. The reason is, there is a prospect of an immense majority against him in all the above mentioned States.

The vote polled in Georgia at the late election has been about 150,000. In 1868, it was 160,000, and the majority against Grant about 45,000. So that it appears the Democracy hold their own, and increase their majority by 15,000 Liberal Republican black and white votes.

The Volksstaat, a leading German paper of Ohio, says that Hamilton county alone will furnish 5,000 of the additional votes needed to carry Ohio for Greeley. Not over 2,500 more will be needed, and they will certainly be out.

Items from the Columbus Sentinel. Governor-elect Hendricks, the highest authority on the subject, writes that this city vote of Indiana will surely be cast for Greeley and Brown.

The first and most important of public duties is to vote right. The next duty is to cause as many others as come within the possible scope of our influence, to vote right also.

Our great chiefsman may be elected without the aid of Ohio, but we can give him twenty-two votes and thus solve the Presidential problem, if we say in our hearts it shall be done.

General Slocum, a member of Congress from New York, writes to a gentleman in this city that Boss Tweed is working for and will throw his whole influence for Grant and the Grant municipal ticket.

Both General Slocum and Hon. Augustus Schell have within two days written private letters to this city that there is not a single vote of doubtful about New York going for Greeley a large majority.

There has not been a successful candidate for the Presidency since James Madison or John Quincy Adams, better fitted by previous training to discharge the duties of the Presidency than Horace Greeley.

The work of one week decides whether the country shall be controlled by Cameron, Chandler, Harlan, Mosby, Delano, Moses, Hartranft, Robeson and Murphy, or whether it shall be ruled by able and honest men.

Horace Greeley cannot be defeated if Ohio voters shall be controlled by Cameron, Chandler, Harlan, Mosby, Delano, Moses, Hartranft, Robeson and Murphy, or whether it shall be ruled by able and honest men.

A Corpse Comes from the Coffin! SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 23.—A few days since a young lady of Urbana, who had been ill a short time, died, and the body was prepared by sorrowing friends and attendants for interment and placed in the coffin. The night before the day of the funeral a number of young lady watchers were seated in a room adjoining that in which the coffin had been placed, when, greatly to their surprise, the figure of a dead girl appeared before them and spoke faintly. When the horrified attendants had somewhat overcome their fright, seeing that the supposed corpse was really a living girl, they took measures to care for their friend so startlingly restored to them, almost from the very grave, and she received proper attention, and is now, we are glad, likely to recover.
